

International Forum
For Grain Processing & Industrial Biotechnology

November 25-26, 2025
Lesnaya Safmar Hotel, Moscow, Russia

International Forum for Grain Processing & Industrial Biotechnology is the main event for professionals and companies in gluten, starch, and its derivatives business. We will discuss all sides of grain processing: from wheat and corn gluten to starch and biotechnology applications in grain processing, including value-added fermentation products from glucose: biomaterials, organic acids, bioplastics, etc.

Meet your current and future customers face to face at this comprehensive gathering of professionals who manage, purchase, and support the grain processing industry in Russia, Eastern Europe, and CIS countries. Position your organization as a leader in the Russian grain processing industry by becoming a sponsor. Don't miss out on the #1 marketing and networking opportunity for the Russian grain processing industry.
